“ Ron, Kathy, Cyndi & Shannon, I am so sorry for your loss, you are all in my thoughts and my prayers. I will always remember when I met Frank, I saw how much he looked like Ron, and it made me smile. I thought then, what a nice guy, looking out for his newborn baby, as 3 barking puppies wouldn't stop. I pray God gives you strength, I'm sure Frank is in heaven, watching down, sending his blessings. Love, Mario and Bibi

“ We're so sorry for the loss of Frank. I've been trying to find words to sum up 10 years of childhood memories starting with a freshman art class at John I Leonard HS by sitting on this page for the past 3 days, but now I'll make a simple attempt. Frank is in almost every memory that I have from 13 to 23 years old, and his place I'm my life and my heart will continue to influence who I am the rest of my life. He stood firm for right and just decisions in the face of peer adversity, and never persecuted anyone for wrongs they committed against him. The man I remember would always welcome his friends and family with open arms enriching a friendship regardless of how stale time had affected them. I'll always hold on to the time God gave to me in memory, and pray for serenity for all of us. Love, The D'Antonio family

“ Ron, Kathy I can't even imagine what your feeling. It seems like yesterday when Cyndi would babysit my kids. Frankie always played ball with Randy. They loved going to your house. There aren't any words, just I know how you raised your children. You know he's looking down watching over his wife and daughter. And one day you will see him standing by Jesus. Just let the love of God wrap his arms around all of you and feel his mighty warmth in your soul. My father always told me God doesn't make mistakes. He wanted Frank to be with him. So now he's truly home. Waiting and making the home for everyone else. God Bless you. You will be in our prayers. Love Sandra & Zane Adams

“ I remember the day like it was just yesterday going to meet the Davis family and meeting their beautiful daughter Presley that I've nanny for and saw her grow into a smart, kind hearted beautiful girl. I remember coming home telling my family how nice Frank & Shannon were and I was beyond excited to take care of their daughter Presley and help them out. I've grew so close to them throughout the years. Frank was such a great father to Presley and a great husband to Shannon. The times I spent with them Frank always was filled with laughter, and had such a kind heart and always a smile on his face. I pray for Shannon & Presley during this time of grieving and to help them know that God, you are the source of all comfort. May they find your strength in their weakness and may your hope and peace fill their hearts. We are always here for you no matter what. We love you guys.

Love always Kahla, Ron, & Gianna

“ I got to spend some time with Frank, Shannon and Presley just 4 days before the Lord took him home at my great granddaughters 1st birthday party at a park and had a great time. I only know the family through my granddaughter Kahla who was Presley's nanny for some time and loved her like my own. That I spent a lot of time with them more than I did with others at the party. Through me, Presley introduced Frank and Shannon to my famous baked stuffed shells and meatballs, and as the day ended, with a hug goodbye, I promised when I got back from Co. I will make them that dinner and I know in my heart Frank will be there in spirit to enjoy.i'm still In shock for this great husband and especially father that my prayers are for Shannon to be strong for Presley and that their hearts will heal and the memories be cherished forever. May this family be blessed to know that Frank will always look upon them, Ann Marie Lorenti (NONI)
