“ Fred the father of Terri. Who I had a relationship with was an inspiration to me. I'm very sorry to hear of his passing. He was a great dad and showed me a side of life that I wanted to work towards. Stability strength, success. And I was a stray dog that he never judged. RIP Fred. Ben Murphy

“ To Fred Phelan’s wife and family. Fred and I shared many fun times at Candlewood Isle, Conn. in the 1950s. I was nicknamed Jersey. We played Basketball there. In the summer of 1955, while we were awaiting our midshipman cruise, Fred encouraged me to drive from Danbury to the Jersey shore ( he would drive with me), some 3 hours ea way. The purpose was to talk with a gal I had seen while visiting there; but had not spoken to. As I told Fred, there was something special about her. Why, after all these years would I remember? Fred drove there with me and I mustered enough courage to chat with her. In 1957, while in the Navy, we married, had three wonderful children and 64 1/2 yrs of wonderful life together. I was such a lucky guy, and have always been thankful of “Freddie’s “ encouragement and friendship. God bless. Tom Bechler
