

Gene A. Paasch

March 30, 2026

Gene A. Paasch, age 91, of Jupiter, Florida, passed away peacefully on March 30, 2026.

Upon his passing, he was welcomed into heaven by his parents, Arnold and Byrd; his sister, Sarah; and his wife, Terry.

Born and raised in Clinton, Iowa, he carried with him the values of his Midwestern upbringing throughout his life. He graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1957. Following graduation, he served in the United States Navy before building a long and successful career with IBM. He often joked that he had been retired longer than he had worked.

He found enjoyment in life's simple pleasures. He was a man of strong Christian faith and read his Bible daily. He enjoyed meeting new people at his son's golf course pro shop and later spent time at his church's thrift shop, where he was a familiar and friendly presence. A lifelong Chicago Cubs fan, he shared that enthusiasm with his sister, Sarah. He loved playing cards, especially bridge and canasta, and spent many happy hours tending to his garden. His love of growing fruits and vegetables earned him the nickname "Veggie Gene."

He is survived by his children, Doug, Tim, Kevin, Colleen, and Stephan; his grandchildren, Malia, Holly, Jenna, Tyler, Taylor, Tara, Savannah, Sierra, Kaitlin, and Nick; and his sisters, Emily, Martha, and Susan.

A funeral service will be held on May 20, 2026, at 4:00 p.m. at Good Shepherd Episcopal Church and School.

He will be remembered with warmth for the simple joys he shared and the connections he made throughout his life. As he would often say, “No matter what happens, God always smiles on me.”
