

Gene Joseph Primozic

December 4, 1936 - December 27, 2019

Gene J. Primozic, 83, was born to Joseph and Philipine Primozic December 4, 1936 in Charleston, WV. He graduated from Charleston Catholic High School and Virginia Tech. In 1961, Gene moved to Florida to work as an engineer for Pratt Whitney.

Gene married Carol in 1962 and resided in West Palm Beach until moving to Jupiter Farms in 1988.

Gene and his family loved to camp and traveled all over the US and Canada. His favorite cruise was to Alaska which he did three times. Gene bowled with the St. Peter Holy Bowlers and followed all of his children and grandchildren in all of their sports. He enjoyed fishing and watching boats at the inlet.

Gene was active at both St. John Fisher and St. Peter Churches, where he was an usher, a Eucharistic minister and a Knight of Columbus.

Gene was preceded in death by his son Scott and his sisters, Jo Ann Poll and Mary Rutherford. He is survived by his wife Carol; his sons Greg, Dean (Chris), David (Karen); and his daughter Andrea (Blake). He is also survived by his twelve grandchildren, his brother Philip and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Visitation was held at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home Sunday, December 29, 2019. Funeral services were Celebrated 10:00 A.M., at St. Peter's Catholic Church, on Monday, December 30, 2019.

“ I worked with Gene at Pratt and Whitney and have known him for at least 45 years. My wife and I were also church members with Gene and his wife Carol for at least 20 years. Gene was a great guy and a good friend and will be missed. God bless him and the Primozic family!
