

Georgia Rutledge

February 4, 2016

On February 4, 2016, Georgia Rutledge passed away in Jupiter, Florida. She was born in Hoboken New Jersey in 1925. Honing her craft in her younger years, she went on to work as a professional seamstress in New York City, prior to becoming a full time mother and homemaker. In her free time she continued her love of sewing, as well as a love for music. She celebrated all forms of the arts and later was a tremendous influence to her granddaughter. She has now peacefully rejoined her husband, Charles Rutledge, who passed in 2009.

She is survived by her two daughters Karen Lippincott (Richard), and Nancy Jefferies (Donald), as well as her granddaughter Lauren Jefferies. She is also survived by her four nieces; Jody Gmeiner, Kathy King, Lorry Colangelo, Carol Witte, and her nephew Mark Witte. A memorial service will be held at Taylor and Modeen on Friday, February 19th at 4:00pm in Jupiter, Florida.

Tribute Wall

“ Georgia Rutledge

October 22, 2023 at 10:17 AM

“ Georgia Rutledge

A friend - February 14, 2016 at 12:00 AM