“ To Gloria's family: Please accept my deepest sympathies. Although I never got to meet Gloria in person, I was able to speak with her by phone and corresponded with her by e-mail, as I have been trying to build our common "Bernstein" branch of the family tree over the last couple of years on ancestry.com. It was wonderful to listen to her remember relatives from many years ago.

“ Dear Furman Children! don't think I've seen any of you since I was maybe in high school (and I'm now 62 so we're talking about a lot of years). However, I saw your Mom's obituary in the New York Times and just had to reach out because so many of my childhood memories involve you and your family (and the Edens) on the Christmas family trips to the Keys and our many visits to your parents' home in Westbury(?), I think. So I just wanted to say hello, and how sorry i am, and to just say how much your parents meant to me. My father, Hank, is now 95 and finally definitely feeling all of his years but still with us. Hugs, Tina
