

Gregg A Simpson

September 30, 1964 - December 19, 2024

Gregg Alan Simpson, born on September 30, 1964, passed away unexpectedly on December 19, 2024, surrounded by the love of his family. His life was a testament to kindness, connection, and an unwavering passion for the people and moments that mattered most.

Gregg was the cherished son of Pete and Carol Simpson. He shared a beautiful and fulfilling life with his wife, Monique Simpson. Together, they raised two daughters, Amanda Simpson and Heather Becht, who brought him immense pride and joy. Gregg warmly welcomed his son-in-law, Jeremy Becht, into the family with open arms. But his most cherished role was "Papa" to his granddaughter Elsie Becht, who was truly the light of his life.

As a brother, Gregg was deeply loved by Tammy Cignoli, Mark Simpson, and Eileen Berry, and his in-laws Christine Gardiner, Nikki Laporte, and Danielle Laporte, Chatsuda Simpson, Ned Gardiner, and Michael Cignoli. He held a special place in the lives of his nieces and nephews: Kellie Ray, Lindsay Molina, Brittany Maccioli, Nick Natale, Bryan Bauman, Lexi Bauman, Krystle Bauman, Jared Bauman, Asa Gardiner, Anthony Laporte, Taylor Laporte, Jeremy Laporte, and Noina Simpson. He loved his great nieces Haley Ray, Peyton Ray, and Erika Ray as if they were his own grandchildren. He was loved by his daughter's friends who called him "dad" and will be missed by all. His extended family members and countless friends will forever remember him as someone who brought warmth and laughter wherever he went.

A lifelong Miami Dolphins and Miami Hurricanes fan with an outgoing spirit that could brighten any room he entered; Gregg had an extraordinary gift for connecting with people. Whether coaching softball or simply being there to listen with genuine care and understanding—qualities that made him one of the best listeners anyone could ask for—he left an indelible mark on all who knew him. His enthusiasm for life was infectious; he approached each day with generosity of heart and boundless energy. His passion for life and unwavering kindness made him a friend to all.

Gregg's legacy is one of love, generosity and joy—a life well-lived that touched so many hearts. Those fortunate enough to know him will carry forward his example of compassion and positivity. May his memory bring comfort to all who mourn his passing while inspiring them to live with the same vibrant spirit he shared every day.

Funeral Arrangements and Details:

The viewing will take place on Saturday, January 4th from 11-1pm at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, followed by a private family burial at Riverside Memorial Park. Gregg's celebration of life will follow at his second home, the Jupiter Elks Lodge. Please wear Dolphins attire in memory of Gregg, as we know he would love that most.

“ Praying for the Simpson family as you walk through these difficult days following Gregg’s untimely death. Lean hard into Jesus and He will sustain you.

I did not know Gregg. I am a friend of Jeremy’s mom and I know she thought a lot of and appreciated Gregg.

“ My favorite memory of Gregg is how much he loved his family. The way his bold presence took over a room! How proud he was and IS of his children and how much he loved being with them. It was all about his family - always. I admired him for how involved he’s stayed in his children’s lives into adulthood. A best friend to all. Love you all and praying Jesus heals each of you and holds you close, that you cling to Him during this time and as you navigate this new journey forward. Gregg is in perfect health, at perfect peace and his best self now. He wants the best for each of you. I love you each dearly!

“ The whole Morris family is heartbroken and we mourn with our sweet friends, the Simpson family, especially Monique, Amanda, Heather, Elsie and Tammy. Gregg had a beautiful way of making each one of his friends feel like they were his best friend. He was loved by everyone that met him and we will never forget him and his love for life...

“ Gregg was a great friend. Never was there a sad time with Gregg. From our youth, being baseball rivals, to playing together in High School. I liked it when it was his turn to pitch because, I got to play shortstop. My favorite memories are of us partying on the beach and playing lots of paddle ball. Thank you Gregg for sharing a slice of your life with me. I’m sorry we weren’t able to reconnect. I’ll never forget you.
