“ I remember this man as always, consistently happy and jovial. He spoke of Miss Lotta so sweetly. Harold was a guy who lit up a room with his presence. His energy was palpable. Lotta, Deb and Harold, you were all truly blessed to be loved properly by this man.

“ I've been lucky enough to have been unofficially adopted by Harold and Lotta as their 'Yankee Daughter' (Harold's phrase!) He allowed me the priveledge of being in the bright light of his love...something I will always treasure! His average stature belied the Giant of a man. He felt deeply, loved generously, and more important, genuinely. There were no strangers in his life, and he leaves a legacy for those, like me, who were blessed to know him. Be free, be happy, and be near us always, 'Dad'. You will be in my heart always. ❤️
