“ He was always smiling and laughing, with a pun or a joke ready, that's what I remember most about him. He cared deeply for those around him but struggled for ways to show it, many of us only understood that later, and knew he had the best of intentions always. Now he is at peace, and his memory will live on with us. If you hear thunder roll, be assured he is one of the drummers in the chorus...

“ *Smit,
You're now with our "Friend like no other"
All your pain and tears are gone. I will do my best to pass on to our kids the knowledge you wished for them.
Peace,
Melany*

“ Flying with the angels...
Drumming on a cloud...
Laughter filling the heavens...
With all the greats you admired...
Sharing your best jokes...
With all the saints...
Smiling down on your children and loved ones...
Working the magic with miracles from above...
To bless your family with gifts of peace...
As they dance to the music of their own journeys through life...
Resting in God's heart with peace and love...
A gentle reminder we are all one in God's eyes...
I imagine these good thoughts for you.
Love... Mon xo

“ No matter where you are or what circumstances you live in, God is with you. Let every breath you take, every beat of your heart assure you that you are in God's loving care. Then remember that what is true for you is also true for your loved ones. God is with you and with them--protecting, strengthening, and guiding each one. At all times, know that neither you nor your loved ones can ever be beyond God's love and care. In God's loving care, you are all safe and secure. "Thou, O Lord, art a shield about me."--Psalms 3:3 All My Love from Grandma Babz

“ Dear Meryl, Justin, & Molly, May the love of friends and family carry you through your grief. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories. May the good Lord shine a light on you, Make every song your favorite tune. May the good Lord shine a light on you, Warm like the evening sun. RIP Smitty ?
