“ I knew the Conerly family my entire life. Growing up in Monroe Heights I have so many memories which include the entire family: Mom & Dad & all nine children. If I had heard of Edward's passing earlier I would certainly have attended the services. God bless all of you, Sunny(Brown) & Ray McCall

“ When I was a Dispatch Clerk, and Ed called in, I didn't want to talk to him. His voice was gruff, and he always said, "This is Conerly, get my log." Until he came in the office one day and I met him. Couldn't be a nicer person. Over the years, he has given me some good advice. My Deepest sympathy. Sandra VeldhuizenJesup Georgia

“ When working at the Northlake Blvd. office in 1980, Ed came in to the lounge and some workers were getting together a collection for flowers for my brother, who had died. As I passed the lounge I saw Ed give generously. He was always kind to me.
