We are all heartbroken and share in your grief and loss of your beloved Jaime.

Been pouring over pictures today of the boys in happier times; their joy and laughter will forever live in our hearts.

We will never forget how the boys were thick as thieves; they sure kept us on our toes. Jaime was such an excellent swimmer from such an early age, and Jaime showed Michael the way. Jamie loved everyone; he was a kind soul (love the picture of him carrying Megan.)

We are praying for you. Please know that the entire O'Connor family sends thoughts and blessings.

“ Dear Mel and Jim,

So stunned and saddened to hear of Jaimie's sudden passing. I cannot believe it and am so very, very sorry. I remember when you, Mel, stood with me at my wedding, as well as helping me with all the details, and you spoke all about Jaimie. He was very involved with martial arts at that time (1994) and you showed me his picture in his little martial arts uniform. He grew up to be a handsome, responsible, caring individual and I know your hearts are broken. When I heard the news I got down on my knees to pray for you all and Jaimie - but knowing that he is now safe with God. I know he will miss you.

I will never forget your incredible kindnesses to me when my Keith was so ill. Your thoughts and prayers meant the world to me and now I am praying fervently for Jaimie and the Gaensslen family. My the Lord keep you all in his care, as He is now caring for Jaimie.

“ Oh, dear dear ones. Inconsolable comes to mind, I so wish I could do more to help you with this burden.

My recent happy memories of Jaime are from my visit last spring. One evening, Jaime and I talked for hours after ‘the parents’ went to bed. Auntie and Jaime, staying up way past a sensible bedtime, sharing secrets and laughing together. His initiative with growing vegetables, nurturing them, his discoveries and triumphs with tender little things. In all those moments, he revealed a strength, compassion and sweetness in himself that can’t help but renew a love for him and a greater love to sustain you.

My prayers are with you, for healing, and remembering how much you both are loved,
