Jane was born on September 22, 1953 in Boston, MA. She spent her childhood in Wayland MA and graduated from Wayland High. One of her favorite pastimes as a teenager was riding her horses. After high school, she lived in Boston and attended Katherine Gibbs School. For a period of time she lived in Bellingham, MA and worked at Jofran Sales furniture company. Jane loved going to the beach, playing golf, traveling to Cape Cod and Nantucket, and was a huge fan of all the Boston sports teams. Weekends were spent at her sisters barbecuing by the water and sharing laughs and stories with friends and neighbors. She was a loyal member of the Jupiter Moose Lodge and enjoyed spending time there. Every summer, Jane journeyed to New England in search of the elusive perfect lobster roll. She never missed an opportunity to toast a special occasion with a cold glass of Prosecco. Most of all, Jane loved her family. Her affectionate nature was contagious. “ My husband and I just learned the news of Jane's passing. We share in the grief that all of her family, friends, and co-workers are experiencing. It does not even seem possible that we will not see her smile again, or share a laugh as she single-handedly managed every detail of Dr. Fowble's office. In the midst of all the madness, she brought us all a sense of calm. We will miss her terribly, and remember her always.

“ It was with great sadness that I read about Jane's passing. She was such a vibrant person and always greeted Dennis and me with that wonderful smile of hers and such warmth whenever she saw us. We always spoke about her Golden Retrievers and her love for the fame of golf. She was such a great neighbor to have when we lived in the same neighborhood. Her genuine friendship will be missed by many. Donna Muller
