“ I have so many fond memories of Jane. She was like a second mother to me. Whenever I saw her, she always told me how beautiful I looked, even when I knew I didn't! When I would visit her at Saint Joseph's, the first thing she would always say is, "let's go outside!" There, she would regale me with stories of her favorite subject: her family. And when I would leave, she would always say "I love you" and I would say it back to her. She would tell me that I was like another daughter to her and that meant the world to me. Jane did an amazing job raising her family and that was her proudest accomplishment. She will be missed. To the Walsh family, I am truly sorry for your loss.
