“ To Janet Kenny, REST IN PEACE Love. No more pain and no more suffering, you are in peaceful place now. It was a pleasure meeting you, getting to know you, sitting down having our breakfast with coffee, and reading the news papers. I am going to miss you a lot, and meeting your family meant a lot to me, and they all appreciated me for doing a great job with you. I appreciate them too. They are all very nice and kind, and to let you know i will vivst them sometime for you, if thats ok with them. Now you are in heaven watching down on us which is great my Dear. Sincerely, your best care giver
