

Jeanette Estelle MacFarlane

August 9, 1930 - April 14, 2020

On Tuesday, April 14, 2020, Jeanette MacFarlane, loving mother of six children passed away at 89 years old. Born August 9, 1930 in Paterson, NJ, “Little Jeanette” was the daughter of Tony and Jeanette Vacca. She was preceded in death by her son Mark.

She is survived by her son William MacFarlane and his wife Sharon (North Conway, NH), their son Dustin and his wife Liza (Manchester-by-the-Sea, Ma) and her great-grandchildren Ella Jeanette and Conor, their daughter Erin Marcotte and her husband Patrick (Alton, NH) and her great-grandsons James and Colin, her son Daniel MacFarlane and his wife Patti (Jupiter, FL) and her granddaughter Abbi, her daughter Christine Mayes and her husband Dave (Nevada) and her grandson Danny and granddaughter Kim, her daughter Jacqueline MacFarlane and her husband Tom Green (South Lake Tahoe, CA), her grandson Mark MacFarlane and his wife Tejal (Little Falls, NJ) and Mark’s mother Gloria Nuccio, and Jeanette’s youngest son Robert MacFarlane and his wife Nancy (West Palm Beach, FL formerly Wayne, NJ) and her grandson Robert and granddaughter Karly. Jeanette is also survived by her sister Ethel Fortino (Little Falls, NJ formerly Paterson, NJ). She is also survived by her niece Donna Benti and her nephew Bobby Miranda of The Happenings, and many nieces and nephews.

Jeanette raised a bunch of longhairs, during the turbulent 60’s, according to David Lyons. She worked as a crossing guard at Memorial School in Totowa, NJ, a waitress and bartender at the Abbey Inn in West Paterson and a bartender at the Wayne Holiday Inn on Rt 46. Leaving bartending, she worked as a grout specialist sub-contractor for Totowa Tile where she often ran into her former bar customers on construction sites. In her retirement she moved to South Lake Tahoe, CA living with her loving daughter Jacqueline and her husband Tom. She passed while wintering in Jupiter, FL with her son Daniel and his wife Patty and her granddaughter Abbl and was comforted by them and her son Robert and his wife Nancy and grandchildren Robert and Karly in nearby West Palm Beach, FL.

Jan was the matriarch of her family. Her home was always open and serving family recipes that were made with love, complimented by ample wine. Her recipe for love lives on in her family.

God bless you Mom, say hi to Markie and Aunt Carm

“ There's a story Jeanette and I laughed about on the phone just days before she passed. It was about her and my Mom (her Sister Carm). They were both in the car driving somewhere and Carm was driving her Black 4 door stick shift 49 Plymouth. She was known to be from the Lead Foot tribe and Jeanette was in the passenger seat holding on!

They came upon a man in his car in front of them, he was stopped but not at the curb. For some reason my Mom thought he was stuck and needed a push. " Poor guy" she said to Jeanette, I'll give him a push. The guy in the car was waving for her to pass him but Mom thought that meant to start pushing, and push she did! That 49 Plymouth was like a little tank and caused the guy to frantically wave his left arm out of the window. he meant for her to stop, but Mom said to Jeanette " Oh I guess he wants us to go faster".

So Here they are screaming down Union Blvd about 40 mi an hour with this guys arm flailing out of the window and Jeanette holding on for dear life! It was like something out of Thelma & Louise! She pushed him about 5 blocks then finally slowed down and stopped. He gets out of the car swearing and pissed, yelling "what the hell is wrong with you, I was stopped waiting for my friend to come out of his apartment house, who said I needed a push? Well with that Jeanette looked at Carm and started laughing and could not stop. They laughed all the way back home to Manchester Ave and then told Grandma Vacca what had happened. the three of them were hysterical.

I hesitated posting this but then I thought, if you knew Jeanette she always loved a good laugh or story. I'll bet they're all up there laughing right now, Jeanette, Carm and Grandma Vacca. We all miss you and love you so..Bobby Miranda

That story had me laughing out loud! Jan and I had so many fun times together for many years. I missed her so much because she hasn't been back to New Jersey for a long while. Some of our best times were going to see her nephew, Bobby Miranda, perform with his famous group, The Happenings. She was so proud. She was always so much fun, sweet and generous. “ *"Fond memories of Jan" my mother in law. Once or twice a week we would ask Jan, "would you like to go drinkin and gamblin? She would perk up and say " well you know what a bear does in the woods, anyway on the way to the casino I would always ask her "Jan, are you feeling lucky today? and she would always reply a sarcastic "hello". And if she won it was like she sleighed a dragon. Jan, we miss you. your kindness and generous spirit. Thank you for gracing this earth with your style and beauty. “ Anyone who has spent time with me knows that Granny/GG has always been one of my favorite people in this world. A woman who was so special in so many ways. She could make you laugh till you cried and was always there to lean on during the tough times. I’m so grateful James and Colin got to have her in their lives and have so many wonderful memories. I will hold all of the memories we have made with her close to my heart and will have endless laughter remembering all of our shenanigans. I will miss her sense of humor and unconditional love the most. She was special to so many people, and I consider myself one of the lucky ones for being so very close to her. I hope one day I get to see her again. Until then, I lift a glass of Chardonnay in her honor. To 89 years young. I love you always and forever, Granny.

“ It is always difficult to miss someone, but the amount of hurt it causes is reminiscent of how lucky we are to have had them in our life. I have personally taken comfort in how hard it is because it clearly proves how special of a place she held and how much she gave me to remember. She was true to herself and never apologized for that and was an inspiration on how to love and enjoy those around you. Granny’s legacy will always continue based on those things she has instilled into us and an endless number of experiences and stories. I am thankful Ella “Jeanette” and Conor had so many opportunities to enjoy you the way we all have and when they get older, I have a couple more stories for them!

“Remember that people are only guests in your story, the same way you are only a guest in theirs, so make sure the chapters are worth reading”...GRANNY’S STORY IS ONE THAT WILL ALWAYS BE WORTH READING.

Mangia e sii buono, I know you will always have a potato where the apples should be!

Love you always

“ Our trip to Italy with Mom (photography by Jackie) brought us to the Vacca’s hometown of Castelpetroso near Campobasso. We visited the town, the church and finally the towns graveyard. While walking past the gravestones we saw the old black and white (faded brown and white) pictures under glass of our Italian ancestors eventually finding a relative who reminded us all of Bobby Miranda. Of course we all had to sing “See you in September.” That’s how I will always remember my mom. I talk to her everyday.

“ It’s hard to put who Gram was into words. She was so many things. She still is so many things. She was funny. She was sassy as all get out (definitely my favorite thing about her). She was independent and honest and generous and smart. I’m really grateful for the time I got to spend with Gram over the last few months. Our time was spent eating (and drinking) all over Jupiter, making friends with bartenders (which Gram was exceptionally good at), and watching a lot of Law and Order: SVU. But our time was also spent talking...I learned so much about Gram’s life, her thoughts, her feelings. I got to know Gram not just as my grandma but as a person, as a friend. I love and respect her as a strong woman who raised a wonderful family; she was truly resilient, and she loved us all fiercely. I will always feel that.

“When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure.” Gram was loved and treasured by all who knew her. I will always hold onto our fun lunches and all our toasts. I will remember our good times of her telling me great stories of her life and some sad ones too. She always wanted to go and be with people and have conversation. Our Ale House shenanigans, her favorite oysters at Crosby's with Abbi, the days at the Beach Resort, Spoto's on Dan's birthday, Gram loved her oysters and clams, and just enjoying the good time. We love her so much and will miss her. Keep all your memories close and she she will be right there with you.

“ *What to say!!! I don't think anyone was loved more. Everyone wanted to visit Aunt Jeanette. Her smile radiates and defines her personality. Always smiling & always laughing. Just like her brother Tony(my dad) would give you her last dime & share all she had with anyone. As I stare at her picture I could cry because I did not take the opportunity to see her again but I know she knew how much I loved her. I remember her telling me about Markie (grandson) stopping by the house in Totowa oh so frequently. I remember the holiday Inn & visiting. I remember searching NYC for McSorley's Bar & enjoying a black & white beer and cheese, cracker & onion with mustard. If I recall my mom & Jackie her daughter joined us.. Aunt Jeanette will always hold a place in my heart. On that note heaven will not be the same ! Say hello to my dad, Mark, Robert my nephew . My love to all your children & extended family. “ It was the late 1950's and as I walked home from school, always in anticipation of finding Aunt Jeanette's car - one usually held together with tape and bailing wire - and full of kids - parked in front of my Lenox Ave. home - It was then I knew I'd be sitting around the dining room table with my Mom and Aunt Jeanette, listening to Aunt Jeanette's adventure of the day, laughing until we cried. Fortunately, my wife, many years later was able to hear those same stories as well, they never got old and are as vivid today as they were then.

Thank you Aunt Jeanette and God Bless.

“ 2007 Rick Steve’s tour from Paris to Rome! Mike and I met our bus buddies, Chris and Jackie and their engaging mom, Jeanette. How lucky for us! A great time was had by all! Seems like yesterday. What a great lady. She knew how to have a good time. ✨
Sending love and heartfelt condolences. 💖🙏
