“ This was my biological father. He cut off all ties with my sisters and I when I was 14 years old. It's a not a surprise that we were forgotten in his obituary, as we were forgotten in his life.

Jacki McCauley Forgit - Spring Hill, FL - Biological daughter - April 27, 2014 at 12:00 AM

He never cut off ties with you and your sisters. He was heartbroken you and your sisters refused to see him because your mother refused to allow it. Notwithstanding your rejection of him, he continued to love you and pay child support until you were adults.

You intermittently dained to see him as an adult, but apparently did not wish to continue your relationship with him and severed ties yet agin. You have only yourself to blame.
