“ From the waiter's line at Kimball, to the Breezy Point bungalows, the K of C farewell party, the back-to-back weddings, the births and baptisms, the reunions on the Hill, Garden City stopovers, t he many phone calls and messages and my last (forgive me Virginia) visit with you in Jupiter, you were always my "Big Guy". Whether it was falling over hedges in Flatbush or marching in NYC with the AOH on Paddy's Day, there was no one who taught me more about enjoying life. I will miss your friendship and will treasure the memories you provided until we can share a non-alcoholic beer once more. "Give another hoiah and a choo-choo rah-rah for Johnny O!"

“ I will always remember John's welcoming personality and great laugh when I spent many hours with Mary on 29th Street in Brooklyn. His mother and father were always so proud of their boys at "the Cross" as they loved to call their college.
With loving sympathy to Virginia and all the family, Jane Leder Horn
