“ John, Mr. Roulis, as I have always called him was a very dear friend. I first met John in 2004 when he was my teacher at Gold Coast Real Estate School.

John and I became friends quickly and he had my utmost respect in his profession. It sure wasn't easy to teach a group of people Real Estate. I really don't know how he kept his sanity most of the time. About 4 months after I passed the school Real Estate class and then passed the State test John asked me to come in for an interview. I went to the interview not knowing if I really wanted to be a Realtor or not. With John's personality and great gift of gab he convinced me to give Real Estate a try.

Not only did John become my boss, he also became one of the best friends that I have ever had.

Even though I moved away from the Palm Beach area in 2008, I always stayed in touch with John. When I came back to visit every so often I would always call him and meet up for lunch or dinner. I am very sad to say that I have lost a very dear friend, but in turn Heaven has gained a very beautiful soul.

Mr. Roulis your legacy will live on in many people because you have touched so many lives with your love and kindness.

Mr. Roulis loved his wife Judy and talked about her often. Judy, always remember that you were what he loved the most from all the 17 years that I have known him.

Judy, I give your my sincere condolences for the loss of your wonderful husband.

For you Mr. Roulis, thank you for your lasting friendship and for being my mentor in business and in life. God's Blessing and Rest In Peace my dear friend!
