

Joseph Anthony Bonacci

December 13, 1936 - January 10, 2023

Bonacci, Joseph Anthony of Jupiter FL passed away on January 10, 2023 at the age of 86. Born in Kingston NY, he was the son of Anthony and Ethel Cole Bonacci who pre-deceased him. He was also pre-deceased by his former wife Paulette, his Uncle Frank Bonacci and his Aunt and Uncle Betty and Jack Waples. Joe attended Kingston High School, received his BS from Cornell University and his MBA from SUNY Albany. He was employed by New York State government for 33 years. He was Director of Data Processing at the NY State Health Department and also worked for the Division of the Budget. He retired in 1991 and thereafter operated a small internet business. He was also involved with community theatre for many years, having directed and acted in various plays and musicals. He wrote a musical comedy, "Small Talk", which has been produced by a number of community theatres. Joe was an accomplished artist and had many interests including astronomy, history and the space program.

Joe is survived by his wife Antoinette (Ann) Miliani Bonacci. Joe and Ann found great happiness with each other and they shared many common interests. Joe is also survived by three dear children and their mother Beverly Goodwin. He leaves his son James Bonacci and wife Susan of Palm City, FL, and James' son Anthony and wife Kara of Palm Bay, FL; he leaves his son David Bonacci and wife Elizabeth and their children Kyle and Emma of Littleton, MA, and he leaves his daughter Denise Yannes and her children Jack and twin daughters Karin and Kristin of Menands, NY. Joe also leaves three wonderful step-children, Frank Ciatto, Carmine Miliani, JoAnn Coleman and husband Geoffrey, and son Samuel. Joe has a dear twin brother Noel Bonacci and his wife Alice of Cape Cod. Their children are Beth Yurchak and her husband Walter Yurchak and their sons Justin and Ryan. Noel and Alice also have a daughter-in-law Rhonda Bonacci, wife of their deceased son Stephen Bonacci and their children Kealia and Taylor.

Joe was loved by all who knew him. He was a great husband, dad, papa and friend. He enjoyed and appreciated life's gifts, particularly art, music and nature. Joe had a wonderful and unique sense of humor, a "joie de vivre", and he had the greatest laugh! He will be missed by his many relatives and friends.
