“ Over the past 10+ years I got to know, respect and admire Joe. He was a smart, witty, and funny man. He always ended our conversation with a funny joke. I listened to Joe's stories, admired his drive, and learned from his ambitions and passion for success and helping others. I am blessed to have been touched by Joe and having been introduced to his lovely wife Marita. May his family not agonize in his death but cherish the delightful 90 years he had spent contributing to shaping our world into a better place.

Warmest love,

Ziad
