“Dear Mom, It is hard to believe that it is almost two years since you went home to be with Jesus. I will always remember your guidance, help and wise advice you had given to us over the years. Your generosity, kindness and love will never be forgotten. I will always cherish the day you taught me how to cook, but I can not compare to you. We love and miss you very much. Love Michael, Denise and Mikey.”

“Hi Momma, Daddy and I miss and think about you every day. Daddy always asks where's momma and tell him you are in Heaven with Jesus and all the saints. It makes me happy knowing your there, young again dancing and with no cancer. I wish I could get daddy to believe, I can use some help from up there. I will keep trying because I love him but he wants to blame the Lord for you not being with him. I wish there were more prayer warriors to help daddy in this. Momma I hope to see you soon, the Lord Jesus already knows who is coming and who is not.”
