Josephine Mancuso

February 27, 1929 – April 20, 2022

In the care of Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home

Josephine Mancuso, 93, of Jupiter, FL passed away on April 20, 2022 at her home surrounded by her beloved sons and daughter in law. Relocating from New York in 1966, Josephine and her beloved husband, Salvatore, lived in Tequesta, Jupiter, and St. Lucie West. After Salvatore passed in 2014, Josephine moved back to Jupiter in order to be near her three sons. With unbridled energy, Josephine was truly a force to be reckoned with, outspoken, opinionated, and had a zest for life. A loyal and devoted wife to her husband of 66 years and a loving mother to her three sons. Josephine maintained an immaculate home (inside and out), was an excellent cook, graciously hosted many visiting relatives, and extended family. Josephine was a wonderful, remarkable, and beautiful woman.

She is survived by her three sons – Robert, Richard, and Philip (Tina), three grandchildren – Christie Wolfe, Sean Mancuso, and Nathan Mancuso (Emily), and three great grandchildren – Jacob Wolfe, Aiden Wolfe, and Violet Mancuso. Josephine will be missed by all who know her and loved her.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, April 30, 2022 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM with a service beginning at 12:00PM at Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL 33458. (561) 744-2030. www.taylorandmodeenflorida.com

“ Josephine was truly a gifted gardener and a very sweet and kind lady. My favorite memory of Jo was her giving my old dog, Buttons, a hearty massage while he stood between her legs. Buttons loved seeing her while she sat outside her door in the pink chair. Your pain is over, Jo, and you only feel the joy and warmth of Our Lord Jesus. RIP!
