“ *Karen and I surfed during the seventies she was so special to me. We would drive up and down the south coast looking for waves. Sometimes we would play tennis, sometimes we would go diving, it was always all good. She was a true friend. We drove to the Democratic convention in Miami to show our support. I really regret not having stayed in touch with her till now when it's just a tad too late. I love you Karen what we had was special we were very lucky 😭 I remember the time you came to me excitedly to tell me you had just freed dived 90 ft. Wow! I'm really proud to have known you.
