

Katherine Lujack Goodhue

October 12, 1947 - December 7, 2025

Katherine “Casey” Lujack Goodhue

October 12, 1947 – December 7, 2025

Katherine “Casey” Lujack Goodhue passed away peacefully on Sunday, December

7th, 2025, in Port Saint Lucie, Florida. Born on October 12th, 1947, at Georgetown University Hospital in Washington, D.C., Casey was the beloved and free-spirited daughter of Aloysius “Big Al” and Katie (Knight) Lujack. She grew up in Bethesda, Maryland, surrounded by the lively company of her five sisters—Andy (McKenna), Susan (Tinsley), Jo (Burgess), Christine (O’Connell), and Roberta (Buchanan) —each of whom shared in her early dreams of adventure.

From the time she was young, Casey longed to be an explorer, even imagining herself as a pirate sailing toward the horizon. That sense of wonder and mischief stayed with her throughout her life. She loved gardening, caring for animals, and looking after others with quiet generosity and warmth. A master of Scrabble, she delighted in clever words, good company, and simple comforts—cheeseburgers, ramen noodles, and hard candy among her favorites.

Casey had a song in her heart and a team in her soul; if anyone hummed even a few notes of “Hail to the Redskins,” she would instantly sing along, cheering passionately for her favorite team. She made friends from all walks of life and collected stories everywhere she went. Some of her happiest moments were spent on the Eastern Shore, sharing sun-soaked adventures with family at Rehoboth and Dewey Beach.

She is survived by her son Robert Goodhue Jr.; her daughter Lacey (Steen); her daughter-in-law Laura; and her cherished grandchildren, Evan Leo and Henry Daniel. She was preceded in death by her parents, loving sister Susan, and her ex-husband and dear friend Robert “Big Rob” Goodhue Sr. They, along with countless family members and friends, will carry forward her laughter, her kindness, and her unbreakable spirit.

Casey’s life was full of love, humor, and adventure, and she will be deeply missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Tribute Wall

LD

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Liz Morris-SIL & Eliz Goodhue-step daugh - December 18, 2025 at 12:03 PM

LD

“ Liz Morris-SIL & Eliz Goodhue-step Daugh lit a candle in memory of Katherine Lujack Goodhue

Liz Morris-SIL & Eliz Goodhue-step daugh - December 18, 2025 at 12:01 PM

EB

“ Dear Goodhue, Lujack Families,
Casey was such a thoughtful, kind person. I will never forget the lovely letters that she wrote to my mother, Julie Glacken. They truly meant so much to her in her Golden Years.

I am so grateful that Casey, as well as the rest of the Lujack Family, was part of my childhood. She will be missed.

*With all my love,
Elise Glacken Bloodwell*

elise bloodwell - December 13, 2025 at 11:34 AM

JH

My condolences to all the families, I'm just so sad of the loss of such amazing friend, what beautiful memories I will have, all the fun times I will cherish forever!! God bless, love, Joy

Joy Hart - December 16, 2025 at 05:52 PM