

Kathleen Baldino

July 10, 1940 - January 21, 2017

BALDINO, Kathleen, passed away on January 21, 2017 after battling a lengthy illness. She was born on July 10, 1940 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Kathleen was one of the original dancers on American Bandstand and was an accomplished artist, interior designer, and chef. Her beautiful landscapes of Florida wildlife and beaches have graced many homes and her art was displayed at several local festivals. She was an active member of St. Peter Catholic Church, tirelessly volunteering her time. And her generosity and sense of humor touched all who knew her. But, above all, she was a dedicated wife and mother who always prioritized the happiness of her family. She is survived by her loving husband, Francis Xavier; three children, Christian (Lynne Tweardy), Colleen (Joseph Pisano) and four grandchildren. She was predeceased by her beloved son, Matthew Baldino. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11 am on Friday, January 27 at St. Peter Catholic Church, 1701 Indian Creek Parkway, Jupiter, FL. In lieu of flowers and cards her family asks that donations be made to the Scleroderma Foundation in Kathleen's honor: <http://www.scleroderma.org/>.
