

Kathleen J. Brockelbank

October 24, 1947 - February 24, 2025

Kathleen J. Brockelbank of Palm Beach Gardens, age 77, after a brief battle with cancer, passed away peacefully at her step daughter's home on February 24, 2025.

Born in Peoria, Illinois on October 24, 1947 to John J. Jordan and Elizabeth (Betty)

Warrington Dean. Kathy graduated from Forest Hill High School. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney for 32 years as a Purchaser. Kathy enjoyed her family, friends and her many dogs and cats. In retirement she enjoyed babysitting her grandchildren and friends' children. She was a NASCAR and football fan. Shopping and adding to her giraffe and butterfly collections were hobbies of hers.

In 2008 she began worshipping and serving God at Nativity Lutheran Church.

Kathy was an active participant in the Women's Love Circle, Act-Love-Walk Mobile Food Pantry, Strategic Planning and worked as the Bookkeeper up until her illness. Pastor Steve and members of Nativity were like family to her, their love and support during her illness

truly exemplified the love of Christ.

She is survived by her loving husband of 54 years, Robert A. Brockelbank;
step children:

Lori Vassalotti & Paul, Lisa Carter (Steven) and Robert M. Brockelbank (Janine);

siblings: Jill Harris, Scott Jordan, Roger Jordan, Danny Jordan, David Jordan, Kenneth

Jordan; sister-in-law Linda Brockelbank; step mother Peggy Jordan; four grandchildren:

Michelle, Brad, Madison, Macy; two great-grandchildren: Andre, Jada; Nieces:
Lisa

Rewolinski, Chaka Delmar, Amy Shepard, as well as many other nieces and nephews;

Best friend Kathy Fallon. She is preceded in death by her father John J.
Jordan, her mother Elizabeth Warrington Dean, and brother Edward Jordan.

Kathy supported St. Jude for years and after her short battle with cancer tears filled her eyes thinking of children going through cancer. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests considering a donation in Kathy's memory to St. Jude Children's Research
