“ Dearest Ian -

I just came upon the news of Kelly's passing. My heart goes out to you and your family. I wish I could tell you how sorry I am in person and give you a big hug.

May Jesus hold you and your family in His arms in the years to come and lessen the sadness in your heart.

I love you, dear Ian -- always have and always will.

“ Kelly and her family became very dear to all of us as she came to Dallas for treatment.

She is the personification of Grace.

The joy we have in our lives as Christians is the peace and comfort that this is but a moment in time and God has welcomed her into his House with many rooms for all eternity.

He said, "I go to prepare a place for you."

“ I will miss seeing your smile Kelly. We always shared plenty of giggles and sometimes, downright raucous laughter at work as it helped us get through the day! I know you are in a better place now...be at peace sweet Kelly. You were truly loved!
