“ I met Kymberlee at a henna convention in 2007. We talked often over the years of meeting up again. I will especially miss her so much this weekend as I attend a henna convention. I know it will remind me of the week I spent with her. She was a fun, beautiful, expressive, multifaceted and talented person.

“ It has taken me a month to look at this page without tears coming to my eyes. Thank you for the happiest years of my life. Thank you for making me smile. Thank you for being my partner. My life is incomplete without you. I will take care of our three dogs, they remind me of our happiest days. I will always love you. See you on the other side.

“ I did not know Kimberly, but I felt like I did through her mom, Cheri. Knowing how much her mom loved her, I know she was a special person who will be greatly missed. Words cannot express the sadness I feel for the whole family, but I know special memories will always keep her close. My prayers are with you all, now and always.

“ I've known Kimberly since she was a little girl and I went to visit Lee (Cheri) in Florida. Kimberly was very sweet with my daughter who is four years younger.

We have seen her off and on since then, in Florida, North Carolina and Chicago. Kimberly visited us a couple of times when she was attending a conference in Chicago. She was a live wire. Very enthusiastic and fun to be around. She gave my husband and I henna tattoos on one trip and got my daughter to go with her to the Jerry Springer show the other time. It is truly impossible to believe someone so full of life is gone - visions of her smiling and laughing keep popping up in my head.

My sincerest condolences to Lee (Cheri) and Marty. It truly does not get any worse than this.

“ My thoughts and prayers go to Cheri and Marty during this incredibly tough time. I didn't know Kimberly well, but I know how much Cheri cherished the wonderful person she was. May Kimberly find eternal peace in the life that follows this one.

“ I had not the pleasure of knowing Kimberly, but if she had her mom's warmth and charm, she was indeed blessed.

It is so tragic to outlive one's child. This is further proof of how life can be so unfair.

“ Always will remember Kimberly as a young girl. So happy and full of energy! The picture I get of her is on stilts walking about her yard in West Palm. I know she was a joy to her mother and father and that she was very close to her brother. My heart aches for Cheri and Marty but for today just remember all the good times and treasure those memories. Much love and prayers.

“ I will always remember Kimberly being a big sister to David, loving to have her friends over and being a wonderful hostess to all the other kids- sharing everything!! Kimberly was always so smart too! I know these traits served her well as an adult and are a testament to her mother's love and devotion. She will be missed by all but remembered for her goodness.
