“ I met Lue in 1997 at the Embassy Suite in PBG because she was the hotel's event coordinator and i was planning my wedding reception. Lueanne was so thoughtful and a perfectionist so naturally the party was a success. Funny enough, my mom, Gail Warfield, became great friends with Lue and they adored each other. The last time i saw Lueanne , and Joe, was in Sept 2019 when my family was holding a Celebration of Life for my mom who had passed that June. I only recently learned of Lueanne's passing from her Facebook page. My sister Pam and I are in shock and deeply saddened by this news. We though so very highly of Lue and so happy when she found Joe, the love of her life. Joe, our hearts are broken and we send our sincere condolences. I have attached a cute picture of my mom and Lue together at some happy hour. They were great friends so we know they are sharing drinks together in Heaven. Much love, Linn Signori

“*Lueanne was a very special lady who loved and laughed wholeheartedly. I am thankful God brought her into my life. I found a few pics from a trip to Key West over 20 years ago and a few more recent photos as well. “ Louanne’s bright smile, pleasant demeanor and sweet personality will be sorely missed. I was blessed enough to work with her over the last 30 years in three different resorts/hotels. When she retired from Palm Beach Shores I knew it would not be as fun without her. Although we did not work in the same departments, seeing her in the hallways and chatting was always a pleasure and happy diversion. I’m glad I had the chance to chat with her a few weeks ago like always. Sadly we never did coordinate a date to meet up. My deepest condolences to Joe and family. Alba

“ Lueanne left a trail of happy dust wherever she went. You couldn’t help but smile and laugh when she was around; she just had that way about her. Her kind hearted spirit was a gentle reminder of how we treat people comes back to us tenfold. It was an honor to call her “friend” and an enormous void is in my heart. Rest In Peace, darling, and enjoy everlasting life!

I met Lueanne when she worked at Palm Beach Shores and we have a time share there. I knew the first time I met her I knew I had a friend for life. After she left PBS we remained in contact and her, Joe and my husband enjoyed dinners, drinks and a Red Sox game. My heart goes out to Joe as I know how much he loved her. I will cherish the friendship and time we spent together and my heart is broken and a large piece of my heart is with her. Rest in Peace my dear friend!
