“ Lynn, we shared birthday months, sleepovers, secrets and a love to dance. I miss you and think about you all the time. I hope that you and Earl have met up in the afterlife. You always wanted a brother and now mine has gone too. I hope the 2 of you are enjoying Elvis playing and singing. Sweet friend, loving wife and mother. Miss you.

“ Lynn and I went to JR & SR High School together. Even though we did not see each other very much as adults, we remained friends We always felt like no time had passed between visits. 2015 is the year of our 50th Class Reunion and we were suppose to go together. Time passes by so quickly, my deepest condolences to her family. May God comfort you in your grief. Lynn will be greatly missed.

“ I am so sad to hear of Lynn's passing. She and my late wife were as sisters - Lynn and Alice knew each other even before Alice and I met in 1972.

Lynn will be missed and not forgotten...

One of my best memories of her is how she came to South Carolina to see Alice when she was dying with cancer - She came twice - even though her late husband Jimmy was not well. I will never forget her sacrifice, showing love and compassion - helping me with my wife in her last days...I will never forget this...
