Losing anyone in life you are close is pain beyond description. I will keep in my prays, and I hope that you stay strong when coping with your loss. Mario was an amazing person, he was so full of life, and an absolute pleasure to be around. God lost a solider on earth the day he passed, but he gained an angel to watch over you guys through your time in need. I wish you the best, I pray you find peace some day. I offer to you my thanks and my blessings for raising such a wonderfully charismatic young man. And deep down inside we know that he is in a better place, even when that place is with god or in our hearts. You will never be forgotten Mario, safe ventures....Best Wishes. Ashamed I did not have the opportunity to say truly good-bye.

“ Seeing you walk into my families house over Christmas time last year I will never forget. You had the biggest smile that never faded. Everytime I think of you that is what I see. You made my daughter so happy and her heart is so shattered. One day we will see the majic of your smile and will forget all the heartbreak we now share. Our hearts break for your Mother and Family. We love you Mario.

“ Mario was always happy and great to be around. I grieve for the Cepeda Family and glad that my son, Michael had such a great friend. If Michael was down, Mario always helped bring cheer or a positive thought. As his landlord, I was proud to help Mario with his first apartment. He was a responsible and caring young man who loved his family, Cheech and his many friends. Proud to have known Mario and his smile will forever touch our hearts.

Michael, I know you are grieving deeply as Mario was a great friend, and I am so glad you have been beside his family to help them through this time of sorrow.

Remember Mario's smile.....

“ To Claudia and you Family,

Words cannot express the deep sorrow for your loss. My prayers are with you and your family and as they say time can heal all wounds. This may be so but the loving memory of your brother will be with you forever remembering all the good things the two of you enjoyed.

May God Bless you and your Family
