“ "Mario Ceresa Rodriguez,

We were classmates at the University of Havana Law School from 1951 through 1956 where we graduated with the degree of Doctor en Derecho. Mario was an excelente student and was awarded the Premio Nacional Ricardo Dolz Arango, being one of the top ten students of the graduating class. His hobbies were oil painting during the school year and water skiing and hunting when at home in his beloved Puerto Padre. Mario was Secretary of the Law School Student Association in his Senior Year. His former classmates will always remember his intellect and accomplishments as a student and later as an attorney. My deepest sympathies to the Ceresa family.

“ I knew Mario for over 40 years. Whenever I think of Mario, three words come to mind--energy, passion and loyalty. There were many occasions during the course of our tenure at DCL/MSU when I had the opportunity to work with Mario on a project or problem. When I sought Mario's advice or counsel, my problem became his problem. If I asked for his support, it was given freely and without reservation. If there was a cause that Mario believed was worthy he fought for it with all of his strength and considerable intellect. He always treated his students as though they part of his family./ He will be sorely missed.

“ Cuando un amigo parte, definitivamente gran parte de uno, parte con el. Adios Mario. Se que un coro de angeles y de arcangeles se aprestan para recibirte en los estratos eternos de la gloria. Compartimos luchas juntos y llevare conmigo recuerdos imborrables. Adios Mario, te me adelantaste en este viaje sin retorno.

“ *Marcia and family,
I remember the pleasant afternoon I spent sitting on the front lawn with Mario, CoCo and my dog Bennie. We talked about his life in Cuba and in Michigan while waiting for my piano lesson. Mario was such an intelligent Man and will be missed by all his wonderful family and friends.*

*I am very sure he would have not lived as long without the loving care that
Was given by dear Marcia, a true angel.*

Rest in peace dear man, you will be missed.

“ Mario had so many accomplishments, but if you were to ask him what his biggest accomplishment was, he'd say "My family." He always came to work with a story and a smile about his family, the trips on the boat on Whitmore Lake, or the movies he watched with his kids. ("Top Gun" had all the "Ceresa Boys" going jumping on the couch going "vroom vroom" and "Little Women" according to Mario "made me cry.") With his big heart, EVERYONE was family. I think we all have different Mario stories here at the Law School, but the remarkable thing is those stories reach down through the generations. My 21 year old daughter talked about coming to work with me when she was a toddler for "Take Your Daughter To Work" day. (Mario encouraged us to bring our children, no matter how small.) Her memory was clear: "He acted surprise with every "peek-a-boo," no matter how many times I did it."
