

Marjorie Vivian Davisson Cooper

March 5, 1922 - March 30, 2014

Marge Vivian Davisson Cooper of Jupiter, Florida died March 30th, 2014 at age 92. Marge was an avid golfer who won many club championships, and a passionate reader. She made friends wherever she went and will be sorely missed by all. She was the beloved wife of Richard Cooper, beloved sister of Linda Thompson of Richmond, Indiana, and beloved mother and best friend to her children Douglas Davisson of Flowery Branch, Georgia and Dr. Teresa Ponn of Manchester, New Hampshire. She is survived by her five loving granddaughters Shelley Crawford of Boca Raton, Florida; Lesley Cheema of Apopka, Florida; Holly Ewing of St. Petersburg, Florida; Amanda Ponn and Sarah Ponn of Manchester, New Hampshire. She also has five great-grandchildren. There will be a Memorial Service for family and friends to celebrate her life at 3:00 PM on Thursday, April 03, 2014 at First United Methodist Church of Jupiter-Tequesta in Jupiter, 815 East Indiantown Road, Jupiter, Florida 33477; (561) 746-8116. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Hospice of Palm Beach County, 5300 East Avenue, West Palm Beach, FL 33407; (561) 848-5200. “ Dr Ponn and family,

Thinking of you at this time of sadness; though I was only lucky enough to meet Marge a few times; her spirit and spunkiness left quite an impression!

What special memories and wonderful experiences she has left behind for all of you.
