“ Mary was a high school friend, she was so sweet, fun and caring. I know these qualities stayed with her throughout her life. I am so blessed to have reconnected with her at the reunion a few years ago and through FB. My prayers go out to her family and friends. Rip Mary, I will never forget you.

“ She was the most kind,sweet,fun person we knew. So much fun & full of life. We grew up in the same town & knew each other since we were teens. We both ended up in Jupiter & she became good friends with all the same family we knew. . I always saw her smiling face, she always gave me hugs every time I saw her she always said we were her family & loved us so much. So glad we got to dance a few times together while Jimmy played music for us,she loved his music....So glad the last time I saw her we gave each other a big hug & said how much we loved each other when I went to visit her,so glad I went to see her... I still cant believe she is gone. She is gone,but never forgotten. Mary will live in our hearts forever. She was the best to everyone! No more pain for Mary & she is dancing with the Lord today in heaven. We shall see you one day again Mary. Jimmy & I will miss you so much! God bless all that knew her & our prayers & thoughts our with all family & friends.Big hugs to all! We love you sweet Mary!! Love,Jimmy & Kelly Johnson

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of dear Mary. There are no perfect words but there is the silent strength of all Mary's loving family, friends and dear Jessica Rose. I send you all warm hugs, along with my special homemade "brooms of golden wheat, stardust and soft feathers of doves," especially good for sweeping away sadness. Let these leave a trail of enlightenment and peace for you to walk upon to a place of calm. May you find yourself there very soon, feeling quiet within. And I send a pair of my special "handcrafted, soft cotton gloves" within which I have woven silver threads of hope and love, along with the scent of roses for calming touches of comfort. My deepest sympathies, with much love to all. Mary will be missed so much.

“ Dear Sue and Family,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. I am hurting with you. I know the pain of heartache in losing a loved one. They say time makes it better but for me I still hurt. It is our hope of seeing them again that helps us keep going on even when we feel like we can't make it without them. Your memories will always be in your heart and that does help.
Love and Prayers,
Joyce

“ I feel grateful and lucky to have had a few hours with Mary to laugh and quickly catch up and tell her i loved her, but regret that we will never have that lunch together. Long periods of time never change the love and memories of someone you love so much I will always cherish the times with Mary which formed the first twenty years of my life, My heart goes out to anybody missing and grieving for Mary right now, Her family which is so important to her. I was blessed to grow up with a family so loving and close and that made me feel a part of it, I was always well fed by by her parents who would never take no for an answer at meal times. Mary i will always feel grateful for having you in my life!!! Till I see you again love Penny

“ We are so very sad that Mary's bright light has left this earth far too soon. I always think of Mary as turning when she would hear my voice and laying a big, beautiful warm smile on me just before she gave me a bear hug. She was fun to be around and a "can-do" woman. If she wanted to build something, or fix something, or create something, she figured it out and did it! She will always be in our hearts, and when we get to heaven, she will be one of the happy spirits we look for first. We love you, Mary!

“ It's so hard to believe that you have left this earth but never from our heart's. Your smile and laugh were so infectious and you will be missed everyday. When we reconnected last year after not seeing each other since our 20th class reunion, it was like we had still seen each other everyday. I'm going to miss talking to you on facebook and will surely miss my Words With Friends partner. Love you Always, Tina Medero
