“ I just learned about Mary's death today, what would have been her 29th birthday. Mary and I met in Mrs. Clark's Spanish class at Jupiter High. She was a senior and I was a junior. We were fast friends right away. Mary was so sweet and she treated me like a best friend. It was so tough for us to say good-bye when she graduated at the end of the year. We eventually reunited in a class at PBSC in 2009. Mary was a great friend to me. I miss her so much.

“ Mary was an amazing person, so full of life and laughter. Mary and I were roommates for a while. I remember every Sunday night we would meet on the couch at 9pm to watch True Blood. She was a giving and loving soul. The world is a sadder place without her. I will forever miss her.

“ I am so saddened to read that Mary has passed. She was a student in my Spanish classes at Jupiter High School many years ago. She had a kind heart and was generous with her time as she helped other students. She was an enthusiastic learner of the Spanish language and culture. I am glad that she was part of my life! Rest in peace, Mary.
