

Maureen Ann Swanberg

September 5, 2015

Swanberg, Maureen Ann

Maureen Swanberg of Tequesta, FL died on September 5, 2015 at her home with her husband Peter by her side. Born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin she attended school there, going on to the University of Wisconsin. After spending a year studying at the Sorbonne in Paris, she graduated with a BA in English. She started her career at the Chicago department store, Carson Pirie Scott, in advertising and public relations. In 1973 Maureen and Peter relocated from Chicago to Palm Beach Gardens where they founded The Tux Shop and later Maureen opened the bridal shop, Bride Beautiful, located in West Palm Beach. Together Maureen and Peter ran this business for over 30 years, and the Tux Shop continues to this day bought by long-time employee Susan Damen. Maureen was a member of the Red Cross Auxiliary, CIA social group, Loxahatchee Guild, Jupiter Tequesta Garden Club, and the May Birthday Society. She will be remembered for her gift of finding and encouraging the best in people, for her cheerful nature, quick mind, extraordinary memory, love of relatives, friends and their families, and her complete devotion to Peter. Maureen could make a room "tingle" with her ideas and enthusiasm. She leaves Peter of 45 years, her brother James Fleming and wife Judy of Huntington Beach, CA, niece Maura Fleming of San Francisco, CA, cousin Maryann Cashion of Northfield, IL, and a myriad of loving friends and relatives. In lieu of flowers, donations are welcome to Hospice By the Sea,

Inc., 5300 East Ave., West Palm Beach, FL 33407. Arrangements for a Celebration of Maureen's Life will be forthcoming. For online condolences visit www.taylorandmodeen.com

“ *I knew Maureen originally when we both were at the U. of Wisconsin in the 60's and we then spent the summer on Cape Cod. What an awakening for both of us, naïve girls from the Midwest! She and I and 4 other girls from U. of Wisconsin all lived in a run down cottage in Hyannis. Long after that, we met again in Chicago. And for a third time in the late 1980's when I visited her and Peter at their home in Tequesta. We kept in touch all through the last century. She was indeed full of energy and had a very fulfilling life, both before her marriage and after. She will always remain in my thoughts and be remembered with great fondness. “ My precious Maureen. We spent a short, few years at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee. Without you, I would not have gotten the Bachelor's Degree. You were a blinding force that rolled into my life after your French adventure. How grateful I have been through the years to have known you. You influence on my life was amazing. I am so happy you and Peter had and have a beautiful marriage and friendship, and successful businesses. With your energy, courage and creativity, you would have been successful in any field. I am thrilled to know of your passing because, this is just a temporary flick of the candle. We will see each other again, and I feel you with me in this lifetime. I was thinking of you a few days ago, and I feel you wanted to let me know. I love you. You are still so beautiful inside and out. Karen

“ I only knew Maureen for about six years but it seemed like a lifetime. I would guess that she never met a stranger. She truly touched everyone she met, was loved by so many and will be so missed by all who knew her. The world was a better place for her presence.
