“ *Meg was such a beautiful soul & got me through the toughest time in my life. Her soul was so young and free and from the very moment i met her i felt so comfortable. We became close very fast and one thing i loved about her was the love she had for her son Roli. Ill never forget all the times we would sit & listen to our favorite rap music and just talk about life. We had some good laughs together. Meg i love you so much- i will make sure you live on through all of our great memories. Although im saddened im at peace knowing you aren't in pain anymore and with your mama.
Love Cassidy*

“ I am saddened to hear this terrible news. I worked with Meghan at DeSoto National Memorial. She was a breath of fresh air. Always smiling and always easy to talk to. She was hard working and fun to be around. A true loss.

“ This is a tragedy. Meghan worked so hard every day and could barely make enough money to make it. Shame on Walgreens for paying slave wages. Meghan deserved a lot better than this. She was a vibrant, beautiful, soulful woman whom I adored and enjoyed talking with every time. This is a tragedy. I will carry on in your Spirit, My Meghan. I will. I won't give up. I will fight for the working people and call out the Walton Family as the evil scum they are. I love you always, Todd
