

Michael Kevin Mahoney

June 11, 2003 - June 11, 2013

Michael Kevin Mahoney

10-28-90 to 6-11-13

Beloved son of John J. Mahoney and Kathleen Mahoney, brother of Sean, Patrick and Ashley Mahoney and Uncle to Caitlin, Haley, Tanner and Kortney. He was predeceased by his mother, Kathleen, who is now holding him close. In pain no more. In his short life he lived and loved life to the fullest. His nickname was Iron Man, because of the amount of strength and courage he showed through the many cancer operations he had.

He will be missed by his father and brothers and sister Ashley and the love of his life, Arianne Scandariato. Our hearts are broken but we are happy for he is with Our Lord, Jesus Christ and his mother and family.

A visitation will be held on Friday, June 14, 2013 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Taylor & Modeen Funeral home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday, June 15, 2013 at 10 a.m. at St. Peter Catholic Church, 1701 Indian Creek Parkway, Jupiter, FL.

“ I have many memories of Mike, one of them went back in Orlando when he was about to moved with my son Andrew and we were all together looking for an apartment. One morning we spend like 3 hours having breakfast at Panera and that day I had the fortune to see the soul he HAS, he told me about his mom, and a story about a ring...an amazing conversation I wont forget ever.From that moment he decided I will be his Latin mother and we laugh, as I keep making him the "empanadas" he loves to eat.Memories is what makes all the people who love "you"a better living future, understanding that you will be alive to remaind us the meaning of life.My respect for Mike family and my support in anything you need always.His light will be on forever!

“ Ashley;

You have been the rock and inspiration for Michael to keep going as long as he did. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

Condolences;

Your family at the North Palm Beach branch.

“ Back at St. Clare, I knew you as Mikey. We grew up together at that school and had some good times. You were a funny guy, and I still remember hanging out after class in 4th grade in Mr. Reen's homeroom. I know it's been a long time since we've seen each other, or even talked, but I am so glad to hear that you lived your life to the fullest and were surrounded by countless friends who love you. You're with your mom now, which is a blessing.

Arianne- I don't know if you remember me, but I lived a couple of houses down from you when we were little. Our parents were friends, and I used to love coming over to see you and your parrot. I don't have a Facebook, but I heard that Mikey was sick this last Friday when I was at Swoozie's. I overheard an employee saying that Michael Mahoney was in hospice. When I realized that it was "Mikey", my heart sank to my feet. If I, someone who was just a friend from the past, felt such sadness, I cannot imagine what you have gone through. I am so sorry!

To Mikey's family- we were never really close, but I remember each of you. I cannot imagine the pain you have endured... What a special guy your son was, and still is. GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU!

Family, Arianne, and Friends - you are all in my prayers!

Mikey is an inspiration to all. May he rest in peace and enjoy being in the presence of God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ!

“ I know we weren't close but we knew each other in class, and you were an awesome person. You did what you thought would be adventures and live life the fullest. You didn't think too deep about what's going to happen next or in the future, you just did what was present. You are a strong person and still are. You were so funny and chilled. Everyone will miss you and think of you every single day. Laugh of every memory they had about you. I wish it wasn't you but, your family, friends, and I will see you again, one day. You are gone physically, but not mentally. Spiritually, you will watch us and be in our dreams. Mike aka Ironman you are great and amazing person... You will change lives. F U Cancer....

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Michael was a great friend of mine in highschool, and we had a chance to rekindle that relationship 7 months ago. I am glad I got the chance to spend some time with him before this time. Mikey was the strongest kid I know, and he is no longer suffering. This isn't a time of grief, rather a time of joy that he is in a better place. The Lord has Mikey and his mother tight in his arms, and they are helping Him prepare his kingdom for all of us when He returns.
God bless you all.

“ John and Ashley,

We're sorry for your second loss in so short a time. We're glad Michael had friends with him. God bless,

Ken and Emily
