“ Michael was one of a kind! Creative, whimsical, positive and so fun to be around! I met him while he was a barista at the Coffee Grinder in Ketchum Idaho. His light hearted spirit was infectious. So many adventures memories!

Hopefully Michael and Nicole Potts are in heaven drinking coffee and laughing. Rest In Peace Michael.

“ We have been thinking of Michael a lot lately and my mother Genevieve Miles just came down to visit and we decided to look him up and try to get in touch with him. Our family was best friends with him while my sister and I were growing up. We loved him very much and still do. We were really hoping to find his contact info and finally reconnect. We are so heartbroken. I haven't seen Michael since I was a child but I have many many fond memories of him. I wished to be able to get to see him and know him as an adult. I am so sad I no longer will have that opportunity and that we didn't find him sooner. He was one of a kind and was the reason for many happy memories in my childhood. He will be missed and remembered by our family always. I actually have one of his paintings in our house and I will cherish it forever. Thinking of Michael's family.

“ So saddened to hear of Mike's passing. He had a unique joy for life, and possessed a special gift of ability to amuse us all with ease, make us smile, no matter what the situation. He could even make Catechism entertaining-- that's pretty special.My deepest condolences to his family for their premature loss, especially to his brother Jim.

“ My most heartfelt condolences to the Weidlein family. Michael was a wonderful friend to me. I'm sorry I waited too long to re-connect with him...although..as I recall..he hated talking on the phone...especially chit-chat kind of calls. I have a lot of good memories and TONS of photos...New Mexico, Idaho, Arizona, etc... When we were in New Mexico, we became best friends with Leslie Wallace and Arnold Duke. When they got married, we both were in the wedding. I must say...Michael was one good looking dude in a tux. We even went on their honeymoon with them...I know...strange..but the four of us had a blast. I'm sure Mike would not have wanted to spent one more minute in a body that was failing him. He had always been so active. He's now with your mom...driving her crazy and making her laugh. I will have hard copies made of some of the pictures I have of him and bring them to the memorial service/wake in April/May. I loved Michael and will miss him...see you guys in the spring. XO
