

Nicholas T. Filloramo

June 24, 1938 - October 6, 2013

Nicholas Filloramo, age 75, passed away on Sunday, October 6, 2013, with his beloved companion, Connie Van Iderstine by his side.

Known by his many friends as "Nick", he was a well respected member of the Bay Colony Condo Association, and served tirelessly on the Board of Directors of that organization beginning in 1994. He was elected President of the Board of Directors of that Association in 2000, and served in that capacity until his death. In support of his community, Nick also served for many years on the Planning and Zoning Board for the Town of Juno Beach, Florida.

Nick was born in Brooklyn, New York on June 24, 1938, to Gaetano and Theresa Filloramo. He proudly served his country in the US Army, where Nick earned the rank of SGT E5. He was honorably discharged from the service on October 18, 1965. He moved to Florida in 1996.

Survivors include: his daughter Theresa and her husband Ed Walsh; three grandchildren – Nicole, Danny and Joseph; two great grandchildren – Zachary and Dylan; and a number of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Family and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Service celebrating Nick's life on Saturday, October 12, 2013, 11:30 A.M., at Saint Paul of the Cross Catholic Church, 10970 S.R. A1A North Palm Beach, FL 33408. A luncheon will follow the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, National Kidney Foundation, or a charity of your choice.

Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street Jupiter, Florida 33458

“ My heart is broken because I never got a chance to meet you and now I never will. I will miss talking to you every week and you making me laugh and me making you laugh. You know that every time I have that Bud Light I will think of you and I will keep you forever in my heart, my prayers, my thoughts. This is only good bye for now because someday I will meet you. Connie you are in my prayers and thoughts and I will continue to keep in touch with you. Love, Kathy

“ *To Connie and Family.
we are so sorry for your loss. Nick was the backbone of Bay Colony Owners Association. He spent most of his retired life, making sure bay colony owners survived all the ups and downs including hurricanes. We know how much Nick cared. We will miss and can't thank Nick enough for all he has done*
