“ I remember all the summers I spent in Dearborn. Dell only asked Peggy and me to do the ironing. We would put 2 ironing boards up in the basement and watch the Detroit Tigers. We would play pinochle sometimes all night long. Peggy and I were both sun lovers so this schedule suited us. The second time I visited in Jupiter Dell bemoaned the fact that the green beans in Florida sucked. I was honored to ship her 10# of fresh beans over night since that time. Don't think I could have done anything else that would have pleased her more. I will miss Dell,

“ Thinking of you in this time of sorrow.
I think of Dell taking pictures of us doing silly faces....
