Patricia J. Duberg

Patricia J. Duberg, of Jupiter, Florida, passed away at age 80, on Thursday, August 18, 2011 at her residence in Mangrove Bay. Originally from Jersey City, New Jersey, Mrs. Duberg was a resident of the Jupiter area since 1960. She was assistant to the City Manager of West Palm Beach from 1967 to 1970 and later held the position of Town Clerk of Jupiter. She also worked for Urban Land and Development, an organization that provided low-cost housing throughout the community. She was a member of Christ Church of Hobe Sound (Jupiter Island), past-president of the Garden Club of Jupiter Island, and served as a commissioner of Jupiter Island. Pat was known for her philanthropy, supporting a number of local charities including The Hobe Sound Bible College, Jupiter Medical Center and the Community Chest of Martin County.

Survivors include her son, Chris (C.R.) Brown of Jupiter; daughter-in-law Sonya Brown; one sister, Mary Graber of Toms River, NJ; three grandchildren: Brittany Brown, Shelley Harden and Stephen Harden; plus several nieces and one nephew. Pat was preceded in death by her husband, John Duberg, in 1990.

A private Memorial Service will be held on the morning of Monday, August 22, 2011. Pat was a long time friend of Bill W. (34 years) and a special meeting will be held at the Hobe Sound Community Presbyterian Church, 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 22, 2011. The church is located at 19333 Southeast Juno Crescent Street, Hobe Sound, Florida 33469

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the "Gratitude House, Inc.," 1700 North Dixie Highway, West Palm Beach, Florida 33407.
