“ Dear Barbara, John, Rob, Chris, and Craig,

My heart is broken. From the moment that Ralph was called Home, my thoughts and prayers have been with all of you every day.

Although I sadly couldn't be in Florida today, I took time in silence, prayer and in his memory at the time of what I am sure was a beautiful celebration of his amazing life and the very special man who meant ever so much to me in my own life. I feel so fortunate to have known him, his warmth and welcoming and sense of humor, and so very grateful for all the time I had to spend with him in your home and so so many gatherings, and for how he extended himself to pave the way for me for my first job in the business world.

John, Rob, Chris, and Craig, I know what your father and his love were to each of you. I know to have lost your father is to have lost a friend as well as the one whose guidance, wisdom, and strength supported all of you like a tree trunk supports its branches. Barbara, I pray that the deep love you shared together will sustain you forever. I loved your love for one another and felt it whenever I was with you.

I will continue to hold all of you in my heart.

May you rest in peace Ralph, and in the knowledge that your love and legacy live on through all the lives you touched.

“ You may never meet a man who more faithfully exceeded to live by his values. He’s been part of my life’s journey as my coach on the field, my boss and mentor at the job, my admiral through squalls and heavy waves, my go to guy, my “let’s go on another adventure” advocate, and always my Dad. He’s an entrepreneurial engineer who cleared many land mines on my life’s path. Even with all his efforts, I managed to detonate some of my own explosives.

My dad loved and cherished my mom. He told me one day, “with every fiber of my body”. At my young age, early twenty something, that intense description struck me, and stuck with me. I knew that if I emulated my dad, I would be on the right path.

My father relished the good things in life, as long as family and friends were at the core of it. Share Ralph’s legacy for kindness with everyone else who did not have the fortune of knowing him.

*I have loved and admired Ralph all my life of almost 8 decades. I will miss his strength, sense of humor, and kind, giving nature. I remember many wonderful shared moments. He was truly a big brother to me.

Uncle Ralph was an exceptional leader who exhibited such sincerity. He was always interested in how I was navigating through life, and always displayed such love in doing so. He was aware of hardships that I went through, and truly took the time to let me know how much he cared about my well-being and future. I am so grateful for his extraordinary leadership amongst the family, and the family business. - Gregory Woythaler “ Ralph was an amazing husband, father, brother and friend.

We enjoyed so many holidays with the Woythaler crew over the years at their house for Thanksgiving, and the unforgettable reunions in the Hamptons. Always a great time filled with laughter and maybe a few pranks here and there....

We will miss him dearly! 💔

“ You go through life and if lucky you come in contact with someone like Ralph.
My life improved significantly knowing and collaborating with Ralph and his fantastic family. We worked hard in the optical industry. We owned some good harness together.
We golfed some of the best courses in the USA.
Shared many meals together.
Got inducted into the Optical Hall of Fame.
The man had the largest heart ever.
Ralph worked more in a day than most worked in a week.
Ralph had more integrity than anyone you could ever meet.
Ralph's love for Barbara and his family was off the charts.
If you were lucky enough to be Ralph's friend you could always count on his support.
There aren't many people I loved more than and respected more than Ralph Woythaler.
My prayers go out to the family 🙏🙏🙏🙏
