

Regina O'Neill Romano

October 24, 1930 - December 12, 2018

Regina O'Neill Romano, 88, of Palm Beach Gardens, FL passed away peacefully in her sleep early Wednesday morning, December 12, 2018. At the time of her passing, she was nestled in her bed at her daughter's home in Jupiter, while watching her favorite hallmark holiday movies playing in the background.

She leaves behind her husband of 66 years, Anthony Romano, whom she married in Alaska, February 3, 1952. They moved back to New York and had five children – Gina, Ronny, Julie & John (twins), and Lois. Eventually she will be placed to rest at the South Florida VA National Cemetery in Palm Beach County, Florida.

Please join the family for a gathering on Saturday, December 22nd at 6PM, while we celebrate mom's extraordinary life together. The gathering will be hosted by Marc Collette at his home located at 10101 Curry Comb Ct., Jupiter Farms, Jupiter, FL. Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served.

Reverend Michael Breznen will conduct the service. Those who would like to share a personal message can do so during the service. If you would like to have your message read please let us know.

Directions: From I-95 or Turnpike...Exit on INDIANTOWN ROAD WEST, Travel approximately 4 miles WEST to Jupiter Farms Road (TURN LEFT) at lighted intersection. Continue for approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile and turn right onto CURRY COMB COURT (171ST Lane N)- Unpaved Road. It is the second house on the right. If you reach 103rd Terrace N, you've gone too far.

Tribute Wall

“ Regina O'Neill Romano

October 22, 2023 at 10:17 AM

“ Madlinemiller@bellsouth.net sent a virtual gift in memory of Regina O'Neill Romano

Madlinemiller@bellsouth.net - February 23, 2019 at 08:25 PM

My daughter and I live next door. Regina made us the best peach pie we ever had! So sorry for your loss.

Madeline Miller - February 23, 2019 at 08:26 PM