“ Dearest Scott and Cindy and families, "Cousin Val" was in my mother's wedding (Doris Keegan and Bernard Ward) and she and Dick came to visit us in Three Oaks, MI some years ago when they visited South Bend where my parents settled. I still have on the bathroom wall a spray of flowers she made from shells. She was a force - and your Dad was the perfect match, quiet and unassuming, but forceful in his own way. We were able to visit several times in our winter trips to Florida but never managed to meet either of you. Our sincerest sympathy to the whole family.
