

Richard Lambertson

August 22, 1939 - January 25, 2014

Richard Lambertson – August 22, 1939 – January 25, 2014 – Born in New York City, Veteran of the U.S. Air Force and retired after a long career at AAA in New York. Rich was a caring and loving father and Grandfather and though separated by distance always looked forward to time he could be spent with the 'kids'. He never had an unkind word for anyone, nor anyone for him. He loved golf but was passionate about the Yankees. He had a ready smile and pun for everyone and every occasion. He loved being busy, with his own projects or that of his friends, and was blessed with a multitude of both. Rich will be remembered as a loving, caring, and sensitive human being with a romantic soul and a positive outlook on life. A loving husband who made marriage special and complete. We will all miss Rich and have been made better for knowing him. He is survived by his wife Pam Lambertson, his children David and Karen O'Sullivan, Norene O'Sullivan, Thomas and Tana O'Sullivan, Robert and Susan O'Sullivan, David and Mary Deasy and eight incredible grandsons. A memorial mass will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, February 07, 2014 at St. Christopher Catholic Church in Hobe Sound, Florida. In lieu of flowers the family has requested that donations be made in Rich's memory to the Jupiter Medical Center Foundation through the Big Hearts of Little Club, 9601 SE Little Club Way N. Tequesta, Florida 33469.

“ Pam, my special friend. I am so sorry. I know your loss. We were blessed with two wonderful men. How wonderful you and Rich were when Tom and I went through our difficult times and Tom's passing. You and Rich were such kind, loving, good friends. I so enjoyed your wonderful love story. Love was always in your eyes. Your love will always be. He will be with you in all you do. Be strong and know that all of us that love you, will always be there for you. Thank you Rich for being the kind man that you were. Love Irene
