

Richard L. LeKachman

June 6, 1927 - December 12, 2013

Richard L. "Dick" LeKachman died on Thursday, December 12, 2013 in Jupiter, Florida after a brief illness. He was 86 years old. Dick is survived by his devoted wife Ina, his son James J. LeKachman and his wife Colette, his daughter Cydney A. McCann and her husband, Christopher as well as his six grandchildren George, Casey, Drew, Caroline, Jacqueline and Alex. Dick received his law degree from NYU and had a long and successful career with Citibank in Manhattan. He and Ina raised their family in Elmsford, NY until retirement and then moved to West Wardsboro, Vermont and later to Bondville, Vermont. Dick had a great love for the beautiful Vermont countryside. He enjoyed good food and good wine. Besides his family, his greatest love was undoubtedly for his Golden Retriever, Bonnie. He will be greatly missed by his family but they will have great memories of the humor that only he could provide.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard L. LeKachman

October 22, 2023 at 10:17 AM