

Robert Anthony Cox

December 26, 1937 - May 7, 2011

ROBERT ANTHONY COX, 73, born December 26, 1937, died May 7, 2011, of complications of heart disease, at Prosperity Oaks Assisted Living Facility, in Palm Beach Gardens, FL. He was a native of Louisville, KY, and had lived in the Palm Beach County area of Florida for almost 30 years, more recently in Hobe Sound, FL. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Wanda (Conley) Cox; his sons, Scott Anthony Cox (Carol Deegan Cox) of Palm Beach Gardens, FL and Kevin Robert Cox of Austin, TX, twin granddaughters, Alyssa Anne Cox Slampa, USAF (Bric) in LA and Erica Leigh Cox of Mabank, TX; great grandson, Jayden Edward Byars of Mabank, TX; brothers, Jerry, Ted, Joe, Kenneth, Paul; sisters Marjorie Saul (Bob), Mary Vining (Chick), Theresa Pinkston (Steve); and many nieces and nephews. His father Otis Cox and mother Catharine (Miles) Cox of Louisville KY, his young son, Eric Brent Cox and four of his brothers, Charles, John, Harold and Larry, preceded Bob in death.

Bob served in the U.S. Navy prior to becoming a financial services and insurance executive for many years and had many close friends and associates throughout Palm Beach County, through his business, church, and charitable participation. He deeply cared for the hungry and homeless. He was a founding member of Café Joshua and Joshua House, as well as being very involved with The Lord's Place, both well-known Palm Beach County organizations dedicated to assisting the homeless and needy community in multiple ways.

A visitation will be held Monday, May 9, 2011 from 4-7pm at Taylor-Modeen Funeral Home 250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL. Then Bob will be going home to Louisville KY.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Bob's name to Café Joshua, 2808 N. Australian Blvd., West Palm Beach, FL 33407.
