“ A calm confident chief. I was a firefighter in Ladder 5 when Bob was a deputy chief in my house...always smiling and easy to talk to. The world is a sadder place without you Bob...God bless.

“ I met Deputy Chief Blume in the early 1980 when I was assigned as a Lieutenant within his division. He was a hands on guy who shared the wealth of knowledge that he had. As I rose through the ranks to Captain and to Battalion Chief I would often recall the things he taught me. May he rest in peace.
