“ *Hi honey you would be very happy with me today
I hired a couple of landscapers to trim all the bushes and trees
It looks great they did a wonderful job on the gardenias
Almost as good as you did there coming back with mulch
I'll take care of the flowers outside the porch when it gets
A little cooler missy still misses you like me she always will
I love you. Your sweetie*

“ I had the pleasure of working with Bob at Ibis Golf and Country Club. No matter what course he was working on that day I would go find him. He always had a good story, great life advice and a big laugh. He will certainly be missed. Thoughts and prayers going out to his family.

“ *Hi honey happy Memorial Day I put
The flag out took missy out and gave Her breakfast she's in the front room staring out the window waiting for her daddy to come home I miss you and love you so much I know you tried so hard to stay here for me and missy
But it wasn't meant to be*

“ *I'm honored to know Bob, what a great guy! A true "ideal" of humanity. He really lived Jesus' directive to love your neighbor as yourself, and to love unconditionally and to live with humility.
Heaven is richer and full of more laughter today!*

“ 21 years ago an angel came into my life and became my partner for life.

We did everything together, took many enjoyable trips and always had a wonderful time. We enjoyed time with the family- bbq's at Jeanne and Bobby's and Robert and Debbie's. Thanksgiving at Lynda and Debby's, trips up to Maine to see Joani & Berry, peaceful evenings on the porch enjoying the beautiful flowers and the garden you made for me to enjoy and that made him happy. We had a great life together and with each passing year our love grew deeper.

Bob always worried about me if he wasn't here to take care of me and missy his dog that adored him. Missy and I are alone now and I look to the day we're together again, you holding my hand tight like you always did. I love you sweetheart and I will till the day I die. Till we meet again honey, your wife Carol.

“ I knew Bob for about twelve years. We shared the salesman spirit that created an instant admiration of him upon being introduced to him. Bob was my father-in-law, friend and loving husband to Carol, my wonderful spunky mother-in-law.
I have had the blessings of being part of his family Robert, Debbie, Jeanne and Bobby that have filled a huge void in my own life and Bob was the glue and smile that held us strong as a family. He was undeniably devoted father and husband to Carol and even the best dog Dad to his little Missy!
I will miss the debates over politics, the talks of sales and the trips we had taken and planned together.
I love you Bob and family and will miss our smiling gardening Bob's wit, charm and uncanny chivalry! He was a good loving and loyal person that this world had the pleasure to have for nearly 83 years. Those who knew Bob are better for knowing him.

Bob and I (Greg Tocci) were raised together in the same house hold growing up. We went to the same schools, St. Mary Star of the Sea, grammar school, Don Bosco high school, and Saint Michaels college. Bob was like a brother to me. We had some wonderful times together. He was a loving and wonderful guy. He will be missed.
